Product Information

-This product has been 100% tested and approved by Race Sport Lighting technicians. -B-Stock product is typically a result of open box returns where the customer changed their mind, or installer failed to interface with the vehicle, and sometimes a product that was installed, but later uninstalled. -All B-Stock is specially marked and can not be returned for credit, exchange, or any reimbursement. Warranty is purchased "As Is" -The picture in the listing is a general image for B-Stock, and does not represent the condition of the ballast you may receive. Expect to see scratches, dings, and marks on the ballast itself. -B-stock is the perfect solution to cover warranty products fast and cheap within your install bay without pulling brand new product off the shelf. Carrying a handful of B-Stock helps dealers inexpensively carry parts in the install bay to cover their customer in the unfortunate case that a vehicle where to come back and need a new part.
